

St Giles Christmas Tree Festival 2018

As Advent begins, St Giles' will once again be filled with the real scent and signs of Christmas as the much loved Christmas Tree Festival returns. Running from 30th November to the 9th December, and the creative work of a great many groups from across the parish, you will find much to see and do.

The church will be open throughout the Festival between 10.30am and 4pm, with refreshments in the afternoons. Entry is free, workshops

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS:

Friday 30th November, 6pm

Grand opening by Councillor Jamie Dalzell and blessing of the trees, with music by Quadriga, mulled wine and mince pies

Saturday 1st December, 10.30am - 4.30pm

Mini-market, refreshments and lunches

Scandinavian Advent Wreath workshop, 1-4.00pm
(charge for materials)

Sunday 2nd December 3.30pm

Advent Carol Service with choir followed by Tea

Thursday 6th December, 2-4pm

Teas among the trees* (if you're a large group, do get in touch to pre-book a special Christmas tea)

Saturday 8th December 2-4.30pm

Festival Finale – Christingle service with Children's Christmas Party and a visit from Father Christmas - all are welcome

Both weekends there will be regular services with a festive touch:

Saturday Vigil service at 6pm

Sunday Eucharist at 9am

ST. GILES' CHURCH CASTLE STREET CAMBRIDGE CB3 0AQ

Further details and updates are available on the website: www.churchatcastle.org